Here are strong reasons why you should talk to your Count Adviser today!

Your Count Adviser is on your side

After listening to you, your Count Adviser will recommend investments that are based on their suitability to your specific needs.

And you have the choice of quality fund managers, your own self-managed super fund; investments in retail funds, direct shares and listed property.

Your Count Adviser is a highly experienced professional

To be eligible to join the Count network, our advisers must meet strict criteria and undergo comprehensive initial and ongoing training and audits.

Your Count Adviser's recommendations are based on stringent research

Each and every product that your adviser recommends has passed a thorough research process starting with an independent assessment undertaken by Lonsec.

Your Count Adviser will save you time

Your Count Adviser can advise you on financial planning, investments, loans and wealth protection. Our comprehensive advice saves you time and the hassle of visiting a number of different financial professionals.

As Accountants we understand tax and can ensure you take advantage of strategies to legally reduce tax – advice most financial planners are not qualified to give!

Part of a network that is big enough to trust...

Your Count Adviser is backed by Count Financial Limited – a network of Financial Advisers and Accountants established in 1980. We use our size to negotiate the best products for you.

Involved in a practice that is small enough to care

Each practice is independently controlled and operates in their local community advising their clients.

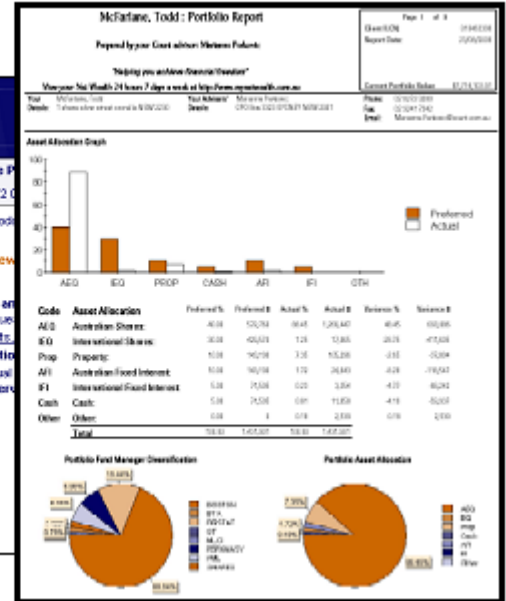

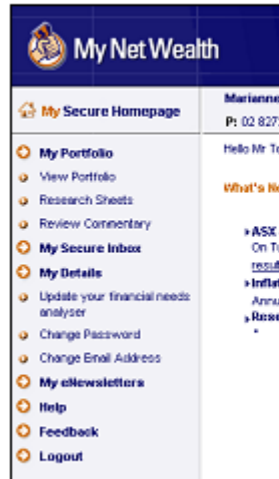

SBS saves you time and money...
